

Northern Ballet's Casanova - Touch Tour Insight and Audio Described Performance Saturday 1 April at Sheffield Lyceum Theatre

Throw caution to the wind, be led into temptation and unmask Casanova with Northern Ballet this Spring.

Consumed by his desires, Casanova lived every minute in a whirlwind of scandal and excess. But there's more to the man.

This original ballet will expose a story so sensational you won't believe it's real.

This spine-tingling spectacle of 18th century decadence will flood your senses and take your breath away!

Our audio described performance access days enable visually impaired patrons to enjoy a range of activities that enhance the enjoyment and understanding of ballet.

The day consists of Touch Tour Insight workshop which introduces elements of the production to aide in your understanding of the show. You will hear a description of the scenery, feel the props and costumes, and discover the shapes and quality of the movement from the ballet with the aid of Company dancers.

The audio described performance, described by VocalEyes, enables patrons to enjoy the story of the ballet and the emotion and quality of movement accompanied by live music from the Northern Ballet Sinfonia.

Northern Ballet's production of Casanova will be performed at Sheffield Lyceum Theatre from Tuesday 28 March - Saturday 1 April. The audio described performance will take place on Saturday 1 April.

The Touch Tour Insight will take place from 12.30pm – 1.45pm and is free to visually impaired patrons and their companion. The audio described performance will start at 3.00pm.

Ticket prices range from £9.50 - £37.00. Please enquire at the Box Office about discounted tickets for visually impaired patrons and your companion. To book tickets, please call the Box Office on 0114 249 6000.

Please make sure you inform the Box Office that you are booking for an audio described performance and let them know if you wish to attend the Touch Tour Insight, as it's useful for us to know how many people to expect and also of any access needs you may have.
